

International Sales is a team of professionals specialized in business communication. Its objective is to promote and sale the events that are organized and held in the Havana International Conference Center and other facilities of PALCO Group. We are the mediator you need for clearing up your doubts before travelling to Cuba. Once you have chosen our offer, we'll provide you with assistance from the moment you arrive at Havana airport. We'll guarantee your airport transfers, accommodation at Hotel Palco and event registration. Besides, once you are in the country, you will count with the personalized assistance of the specialists making up the International Sales department.