

It's the specialist in charge of organizing all the stages of an event. The Havana International Conference Center has a team of Professional Congress Organizers responsible for designing, advising, planning, coordinating, communicating, developing and assessing all types of events, devoted to a wide range of specialties.

You will find the name and e-mail address of your congress organizer in the general information provided for each event on the website.