

At the moment of registration, undergraduate students must present their student identification or submit a letter duly signed and stamped by their educational center. The payment of the registration fee will be made directly at the Registration Office of the Havana International Conference Center. Students can request the Hotel & Transfer package on our website.